Making Space

This year’s exhibition sublimates the previous Agape displays at Design Post by refocusing on a series of products, systems and materials thriving on the architectural scale interacting with the space around them.

The display highlights the possibility of establishing relationships within our product range that are able to seamlessly link different styles, geometries, materials, designers and eras making truly personalized and timeless propositions.

This is the Architecture of the Bathroom according to Agape, narrated through objects, compositions and matter. Rigo’s structure, Petra’s concrete, DR’s mass and Ell’s minimal sign become the latest musings along a research and design process that began almost 50 years ago.
